

Expandable XL

Eye-catching exhibition trailer

With HMK Bilcon's Expandable XL, you get a trailer that catches the eye and creates attention wherever it is set up. It is extremely spacious, and the rooms are bright and inviting. The exhibition trailer is particularly suitable for use for product presentations, as a mobile meeting room and road shows. It can be decorated on all external surfaces with company logos and photos of your choice. The interior can also be made to suit your wishes and needs.

2 floors with terrace

The trailer has an extension pod on the right side as well as an extension pod on the top. The entrance stairs can be established from inside the trailer or outside, depending on your needs. It is possible to make a terrace on the roof of the extension on the right side as well as on the roof of the extension on top of the trailer. When the side and top are extended, up to 97 m² is achieved, which can be furnished with lounge furniture, shelving, kitchen facilities, food elevator and much more.
